Dear Friends,

The House of Representatives has passed more than 30 jobs bills and a plan to avoid the President's catastrophic tax hikes, which are projected to cost more than 700,000 jobs.

Unfortunately, since the Senate hasn't acted yet, those tax hikes will still go into effect- and now the August recess has begun.

Normally, Members of Congress look forward to getting back to their districts for the month. But I think we should stay in Washington until the job is finished:
