Dear Friend,

Loyal Cubs fans like me have waited a long time to see our boys get to the World Series. No one wants to miss a single game after waiting more than 70 long years.

So I have decided to reschedule events in Gurnee and McHenry (originally scheduled during game nights) in order to allow loyal baseball fans to enjoy watching the Cubs beat the Indians in the World Series.

Please see below for updated dates and locations:

Wednesday, October 26, 2016; Gurnee (previously on Tuesday, October 25)

11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Gurnee Police Station Community Room

100 North Oplaine Road

Gurnee, IL 60031

*In attendance: Gurnee Chief of Police Kevin M. Woodside

Thursday, November 3, 2016; McHenry (previously on Wednesday, October 26)

Note:

- I will be scheduling ten-minute, one-on-one meetings with constituents on the evening of November 3rd in McHenry.
- Please email IL14.Scheduling@mail.house.gov to RSVP.
- Interested residents will be notified of exact time and location next week.

Go Cubs!
